April 20, 2025 – Song of Songs: The Journey into Wholehearted Love – Rendu Paras

Day 51 – There is No One Like Jesus

“His hands are rods of gold set with beryl, His body is carved ivory inlaid with sapphires, His legs are pillars of marble... His countenance is like Lebanon... His mouth is most sweet. Yes, He is altogether lovely. This is my Beloved, this is my Friend.” (Song of Songs 5:14–16)

Here, the Bride continues her adoration with intimate clarity. Jesus is described not only in His form but in what He does for His beloved.

His hands, strong and precious, carry healing and authority. In them is the power to restore what’s broken. His body, like inlaid ivory, speaks to His inner beauty, sacred, holy, and full of compassion.

His legs, like marble pillars, show us His unshakable nature. Jesus doesn’t falter. His path is steady and true. His countenance, like the majestic trees of Lebanon, reveals the weight of His glory and peace. He is grand, but never intimidating. His majesty invites us in.

And finally, His mouth is most sweet. Every word Jesus speaks brings life, joy, and intimacy. His voice calms storms and stirs hearts.

The Bride ends with a declaration: “He is altogether lovely.” Jesus is flawless, not only in divinity but in relationship. He’s our Beloved, yes, but also our Friend. In His presence, we are safe, seen, and satisfied. Let our hearts echo her cry today, there is no one like Jesus.
