Day 53 – The Answer to Love’s Question (Song 6:2–3)

Yesterday, we watched as the Bride’s voice of adoration awakened a cry in others. Her simple, lovesick description of Jesus stirred something deep in the daughters of Jerusalem. They didn’t just want to hear about Him anymore, they wanted to find Him:

“Where has your Beloved gone, that we may seek Him with you?” (Song 6:1)

And today, we see her answer.

“My Beloved has gone to His garden, to the beds of spices, to feed His flock in the gardens and to gather lilies. I am my Beloved’s, and my Beloved is mine. He feeds His flock among the lilies.” (Song 6:2–3)

She knows exactly where He is because love has taught her.

This is the fruit of a life that has learned to seek Him in both joy and testing. The Bride doesn’t panic when Jesus seems hidden. She doesn’t wonder if He’s distant or distracted. She knows His heart. She knows His ways. She knows where to find Him: in His garden, among His people, feeding His flock with gentleness and delight.

Her response is not just directional, it’s deeply personal.

She doesn’t say, “He went somewhere over there.”

She says, “I am His, and He is mine.”

She knows exactly where He is because she knows His heart. Her answer reveals more than His location, it reveals the bond they share. She’s not guessing where He might be; she’s confident because she belongs to Him, and He belongs to her.

This is the maturity of love. The question in Song 6:1 was born from awakening desire. This answer in verses 2–3 is rooted in a history of intimacy. The Bride has walked with Him long enough to know: He’s always faithful to show up where love and humility dwell.

He feeds His flock among the lilies.

Among those who have chosen purity.

Among those who live in surrendered beauty.

Among those who reflect His fragrance to the world.

You don’t have to chase Him through the noise.

You'll find Him in His garden, among His people, in His Church, in the secret place where hearts are fragrant with devotion.

Let this be your assurance today:

He's not far.

He's tending His garden.

He's feeding His beloved ones.

And He still responds to the cry, "Where has your Beloved gone?", not with distance, but with presence.

Because when your love awakens love, He comes to dwell among you.
