May 2, 2025 – Song of Songs: The Journey into Wholehearted Love – Rendu Paras

Day 63 – Desired by God, Defined by Love

“I am my Beloved’s, and His desire is toward me.” (Song of Songs 7:10)

You are not just tolerated by God, you are deeply desired. This is not a poetic exaggeration. It is truth. You move His heart. His eyes are fixed on you with unwavering affection. This is the holy ground of identity: I am my Beloved’s. His desire is toward me.

It’s one thing to serve Jesus. It’s another to know that He longs for you. When this becomes more than an idea, when it becomes your reality, it reshapes everything. It silences fear. It frees you from striving. It becomes your anchor in rejection, your confidence in obedience.

This is your twofold identity in love:

1. You are the one He desires. This is the first movement of love. He came after you long before you ever looked for Him.

2. You are the one who belongs to Him. You’ve given yourself fully. Your heart is not divided. You live to please Him.

In this place of intimacy, obedience is no longer driven by duty but by desire. Like the Bride, you serve Jesus because you want to, because your heart says yes to the One who first said yes to you. This is why love is the most powerful motivator: it’s not about earning His approval, but responding to His affection.

Your yes matters.

It awakens others.

It moves Jesus.

It defines you.

Let this truth settle deep today:

You are desired by God. You are fully His. And He is fully yours.
