The Mircale that is Noah

(Genesis 6:9)

He was near to God, obedient, available, and holy! Noah walked with God!

He lived his life very close to God in habitual fellowship with God.

“Adam and Eve’s descendants became extremely wicked, and God’s heart was filled with grief and regret for creating them. He declared that he would destroy every living creature on earth – both human and animal alike.”

But there’s a man in Noah that pleased God!

Noah found favor with God!

Noah was a man obedient to the commands of God.

Noah made himself available to God. He received instructions from God. Only a man after God’s heart will listen with the intent to do His will. He had no other agenda except to honor God, so he devoted himself to Him.

God chose him because he lived holy in a time when all around Him was evil and wicked.

Noah found grace because he lived holy.

Noah obeyed God to build an ark, an unbelievable thing to do that was never done before!

Yet Noah built it.

The miracle that is Noah, is his absolute obedience to a task so incredibly ridiculous to do as it has never been done before!

How about you? What is the miracle that is you?
