Plague 10: First-Born Destroyed in Egypt – Exodus 12:29-30

“And it came to pass at midnight that the Lord struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of livestock.

So Pharaoh rose in the night, he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

Then he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, “Rise, go out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel. And go, serve the Lord as you have said.

Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also.”

And the Egyptians urged the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste. For they said, “We shall all be dead.”

So the people took their dough before it was leavened, having their kneading bowls bound up in their clothes on their shoulders.”

Exodus 12:29-34 NKJV

We see here that God prevailed over hardened hearts!

My thoughts are, “Why?” We as humans have to wait for the consequences of sin to take its damaging effect before we yield to God’s grace!
