A Time of Pondering

Let us ponder this week's posts:

God is pleased each and every time we come before His throne as we are whispering, reciting, declaring, and pleading for the speedy fulfillment of His unfailing promises in Jesus' name.

God told the prophet Isaiah to put Him in remembrance, to plead (or argue) our case together. We don't come to Him to argue (in a negative way) but to present and make an earnest entreaty. But we must also do our homework! We must know God's Word and His promises! And allow Holy Spirit to be our guide as we present our holy argumentation. Pray in tongues and the Spirit Himself will make intercession for us.

Romans 8:26 NKJV

[26] Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

God looks at our persistent pleas and He looks upon it as faith. Let us not be weary in bringing our pleas to God and reminding Him of His promises!

Amen!
