Come, Let us Argue Together

Let us meditate on this week's posts on pleading our case to God.

What is the final outcome? What will be the score at the end of such a day? Our result is spelled out by the prophet Isaiah who declared by God's Spirit: "Put Me in remembrance, let us argue our case together; state your cause, that you may be proved right." (Isa. 43:26).

Are you prepared to approach the bench of the Most High as an advocate of His people, His purposes, and His glory? Gather your case, check your heart, and fall to your knees. The court of the Righteous Judge is always convened and ready to hear your pleas. What case are you ready to bring?
