Authority Over the Nation by Francis Frangipane

Christ has given us "authority over all the power of the enemy," but we must use His authority. He assures us "nothing shall injure you" (Luke 10:19), but we must not yield to fear. We are new covenant people who have been sent by Jesus with His authority.

Be assured, many have overcome Jezebel's influence, and the promise to them is significant: "authority over the nations" (Revelation 2:26). You say, "This promise will occur after Jesus returns." Yes, but many of God's promises have a partial fulfillment in this age. Many godly individuals, in times past, were truly able to exercise authority over their nation. Luther influenced Germany. Wesley moved England toward God. We can walk in the "powers of the age to come" now (Hebrews 6:5).

Therefore, let us confront and renounce the influence of Jezebel. Submit to God in the specific areas of personal purity. Make yourself accountable to others concerning the Internet, movies, and relationships with others of the opposite gender. Finally, when you pray for America, ask God to forgive this land of the influence of Jezebel and her "many harlotries and witchcrafts." We each can walk in purity and holiness, even in the 21st century.

Use your authority to overcome Jezebel and God will give you authority over the nations.

Prayer:

Lord, I submit my heart to You. I ask that You cleanse me of tolerance, of compromise and fear. You have given me authority over all the power of the enemy. You said no weapon formed against me will prosper. You said he who overcomes shall inherit Your promises. Lord, make me as Jehu of old. Empower me to overcome the spirit of Jezebel.
