

Forerunners for Christ Los Angeles

February 8, 2023 – God’s Creative Power For Today – Linda Cruz

The Fire of God’s Love

The Spirit calls the Church to her inheritance of experiencing God’s love in the context of engaging with the Trinity in fellowship. It is our privilege (glory) and destiny to participate in this fellowship.

“And the glory which You gave Me I have given them Father, I desire that they, may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me” (Jn. 17:22, 24).

Jesus warned the end-time generation about the rise of negative emotions which can be summed as “the love of many growing cold.”

We are, however, called to live in and experience the fire of God’s love as the only safe place to be. The eternal fellowship of Trinity is this place of fire.

“And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold.” (Matt. 24:12)

“Many waters (fear, offense, lust, deception) cannot quench (flames of fire, a most vehement flame) love, nor can the floods drown it.” (Song 8:6-7)

Let us return to our first love. This does not mean you left but to keep burning in His love by pressing more and more in His love.

Today as we fast let us meditate on the scriptures above as well as on Matthew 22:37-39.

“Jesus said to him, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

Matthew 22:37-40 NKJV

“Jesus answered him, ‘Love the Lord your God with every passion of your heart, with all the energy of your being, and with every thought that is within you.’ This is the great and supreme commandment. And the second is like it in importance: ‘You must love your friend in the same way you love yourself.’ Contained within these commandments to love you will find all the meaning of the Law and the Prophets.”

Matthew 22:37-40 TPT