Man Is Designed for God's Glory!

The teaching that humanity is designed for God's glory suggests that the ultimate purpose of human life is to reflect God's greatness, praise Him, and live in a way that makes His worth known. This includes acknowledging Him, worshipping Him, and enjoying a relationship with Him. Being created in God's image is central to this idea, as humans are uniquely equipped to mirror God's character and, through their existence, show forth His glory.

Here's the concept...

Created in God's image: created in God's image, given the capacity and power to have a relationship with God and to reflect His character through their minds and wills.

Reflecting God's glory: Our purpose is to "image forth God's glory" by reflecting His character and showing His greatness, beauty, and worth. This is not selfish, but rather a self-giving act where God's glory is made known through His creation.

Worship and enjoyment: Glorifying God includes actively worshipping and praising Him, as well as enjoying Him forever. When we delight in God's glory, it glorifies Him more than just acknowledging it.

Fulfilling purpose: This purpose is fulfilled by living in a way that points back to God. This can be seen in actions like raising children to know God, working, and caring for creation, all done with the intent to glorify Him.

Living out the relationship: The goal is to live a life that is centered on God, under His authority, and ultimately to His glory. This involves not only formal worship but also prayer, thinking, planning, and working in ways that magnify Him.

“And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.”

Colossians 1:18 NKJV

Prayer: Lord God almighty help us to give you preeminence in all things!
