Myra's Insight

What a God! What a God! - To me it means God's power and glory in display!

1. The experience of going beyond religion, having form and structure but allowing God to do what only He can do. That is why it is imperative to yield to the leadership of the Holy Spirit. i.e. Program / worship > to me when people did not know how and were challenged to enter the presence of God it was because of familiarity and form. They were so used to their kind of worship with two fast songs and two slow songs. But as we worshipped (especially in Palawan), God's power is demolishing and breaking off their ways, form and structure of worship... That yes, they can worship that way! In any way that exalts and adores God!

2. Living in righteousness - to be a leaven that impacts first my family and friends, then community. This is only because God's power lives in me and I am empowered to live a godly and righteous life. That whatever I say aligns with the way I live. And this is what I carried in the Phil and especially in my everyday life. I don't need to be one kind of a person at home and another at work and another at church.

3. Moses generation awakening > Joshua generation rising! - when the testimonies of the older folks in the Philippines mentions Moses.. that they are the Moses generation and they are awakened and roused up, fire reignited in their hearts... It is God's power working in them. And as they take hold of the revival in their hearts / lives... The Joshua generation will arise! Because the lives of Moses' generation will exemplify a life and need for God's glory, the Joshua's will see and we will be those people who like in Exodus 33 Joshua remained (did not depart) in the tabernacle of tent because he also experienced the wonder of being in the presence. That as Moses kept drawing near God, it also drew Joshua closer to God! Only with the power of God (the Holy Spirit) hearts are drawn to God.

What a God! What a God!

Prayer: Help us Jesus to put God in PRIME TIME always in every aspect of our lives and living!
Amen.
