Jeremiah 31:1-4

“At the same time,” says the Lord, “I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people.”

Thus says the Lord: “The people who survived the sword Found grace in the wilderness— Israel, when I went to give him rest.”

The Lord has appeared of old to me, saying: “Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you. Again I will build you, and you shall be rebuilt, O virgin of Israel!

You shall again be adorned with your tambourines, And shall go forth in the dances of those who rejoice.”

Jeremiah 31:1-4 NKJV

God’s desire for His people is relentless. In the mouth of the prophets, His voice of affirmation is ever heard.

I sense that as the prophets’ mouth would speak of God’s heart desire, the strength and power of the prophecy sealed is marking God’s people and strengthening His promise. Think about it. How can anything prevent His desire in being fulfilled?
