Jesus is Heir of All

The Father appointed one Man as the heir over all the property and resources on earth.

2Whom He has appointed heir of all things... (Heb. 1:2)

The Romans proclaimed Caesar as the heir, rightful owner, of the nations. The leaders of Israel saw themselves as the “heirs” over the land of Israel. Both groups persecuted Jewish believers. It was a radical idea that a Jewish man who died as a criminal was the true heir of the world!

The Father decreed that Jesus be given all the nations as His inheritance. This includes their governments, property, money, resources, and possessions on earth.

8I [the Father] will give You the nations for Your inheritance... (Ps. 2:8)

Jesus will take over all the nations only on the basis of truth, humility, and righteousness (Ps. 45:4; Isa. 11:3-5; 42:1-4). He will dispense the resources with wisdom, justice, and generosity to cause love to increase. Jesus alone is our assurance that love will never diminish on the earth.

4In your majesty ride forth victoriously in behalf of truth, humility and righteousness... (Ps. 45:4, NIV)

John had a vision of the Father giving the title deed of the earth to Jesus (Rev. 5:1-8). This will result in Jesus receiving total authority over all society in the Millennium. He will own all the cities, property, money, banks, natural resources, oil and water rights, intellectual property, etc. of the earth. All on the earth will joyfully agree with Jesus taking over the nations (Rev. 5:13).

7He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne...11The voice of many angels...12saying..., “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom, and strength and honor and glory and blessing.” (Rev. 5:7, 11-12)

During the Millennium,
Jesus will receive all the power (governmental authority);
riches (money and natural resources);
wisdom (intellectual ability and property); strength (physical strength, including the labor force and human resources); glory (praise, adulation, and love);
honor (all will esteem Him with their obedience); and blessing (agreement with His policies with unified cooperation).
