God's Voice Speaking Through Creation

"The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows His handiwork.
Day unto day utters speech, And night unto night reveals knowledge.
There is no speech nor language Where their voice is not heard.
Their line has gone out through all the earth, And their words to the end of the world.
In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun,"
Psalms 19:1-4 NKJV

Psalm 19 is dedicated to God's revelation of Himself to humanity. We've all heard verse one, which says, "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth His handywork." The first six verses of this Psalm speak to us about the revelation of God in nature.

The beauty of God in His creation speaks! It's tells us the story of the creator.

It tells us of His grandeur,
of His majesty,
of the vastness of His creation,
and the reflection of His limitless extent.

Loud and clear the stars sparkle. They speak of the glory of God shining.

And what of His creatures? The birds speak to us in chirping songs and chatter. They say, sing, and so much more to tell.

Prayer:

Your endless beauty speaks of majesty. You are awesome in your creation and what of man that you would speak through them. In your image, the sound and depth of your love.
