Day 4: Wind and Wave Obey Jesus (Luke 8:22-25)

"He sent His word and healed them, And delivered them from their destructions."

Psalms 107:20

"Now it happened, on a certain day, that He got into a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, 'Let us cross over to the other side of the lake.' And they launched out. But as they sailed He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, 'Master, Master, we are perishing!' Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there was a calm. But He said to them, 'Where is your faith?' (Trouble and difficulty is a locator of faith.) And they were afraid, and marveled, saying to one another, 'Who can this be? For He commands even the winds and water, and they obey Him!'"

Luke 8:22-25 NKJV

"One day Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let's get in a boat and go across to the other side of the lake.' So they set sail, and soon Jesus fell asleep. But a fierce wind arose and became a violent squall that threatened to swamp their boat. Alarmed, the disciples woke Jesus up and said, 'Master, Master, we're sinking! Don't you care that we're going to drown?' With great authority Jesus rebuked the howling wind and surging waves, and instantly they became calm. Then Jesus said to them, 'Why are you fearful? Have you lost your faith in me?' Shocked, they said with amazement to one another, 'Who is this man who has authority over winds and waves that they obey him?'"

Luke 8:22-25 TPT

The question of the disciples in this chapter: "Who is this man who has authority over winds and waves that they obey Him?"

Notice that Jesus spoke to the wind and waves, and the winds and wave ceased from its violent manifestation. The disciples saw the power of the word of God. Our word when spoken in faith will create the power to demand obedience from the object of the action.
