The Prophetic Assurance: The Marriage Promise to the Bride

The Bride declares to the daughters of Jerusalem with the bold resolution and the certainty of faith that together they would, “Be glad and rejoice in God and remember His love through all the seasons of life.” This was her resolute confession of faith through each season in life.

“The king has brought me into his chambers. We will be glad and rejoice in you. We will remember Your love [affection] more than wine.”

Song 1:4

We will be glad and rejoice in Jesus and remember His love in three ways.

1. First, we rejoice in and remember His tender mercy in our weakness as we refuse condemnation.
2. Second, we rejoice in and remember His excellencies and exhilarating affections that are superior to the wine of sin.
3. Third, we rejoice in and remember His leadership over our lives in times of difficulty and testing.

“We also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ...”

Romans 5:11

This faith confession in times of despair and testing is an expression of spiritual warfare as we declare that God is good and the devil is a liar. This confession of faith foreshadows the marriage supper of the Lamb. We will use these very words on the great wedding day.

“Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.”

Revelation 19:7

Prayer:

Lord Jesus the gladness in our hearts is the expectation that we are your bride! And we are getting ready!
