Faint in Love

“My darling, you are so lovely! You are beauty itself to me. Your passionate eyes are like gentle doves.

My beloved one, both handsome and winsome, you are pleasing beyond words. Our resting place is anointed and flourishing, like a green forest meadow bathed in light.

Rafters of cedar branches are over our heads and balconies of pleasant-smelling pines.”
Song of Songs 1:15-17 TPT

“Yes, you are my darling companion. You stand out from all the rest. For though the thorns surround you, you remain as pure as a lily, more than all others.

My beloved is to me the most fragrant apple tree— he stands above the sons of men. Sitting under his grace-shadow, I blossom in his shade, enjoying the sweet taste of his pleasant, delicious fruit, resting with delight where his glory never fades.

Suddenly, he transported me into his house of wine— he looked upon me with his unrelenting love divine.

Revive me with your raisin cakes. Refresh me again with your apples. Help me and hold me, for I am lovesick! I am longing for more— yet how could I take more?

His left hand cradles my head while his right hand holds me close. I am at rest in this love.

Promise me, Jerusalem maidens, by the gentle gazelles and delicate deer, that you’ll not disturb my love until she is ready to arise.”

Song of Songs 2:2-7 TPT

Prayer:

Abba in Yeshua’s name!

What manner of love is this?

From eternity to eternity is the expanse of your love.

I can’t imagine this, help me.

Your expression of love is making me faint.

I rest in your arms as I lay my head to rest!
