The Dark Night of Love

In Search of Him

“Night after night I’m tossing and turning on my bed of travail.

Why did I let him go from me?

How my heart now aches for him, but he is nowhere to be found!

So I must rise in search of him, looking throughout the city, seeking until I find him.

Even if I have to roam through every street, nothing will keep me from my search.

Where is he—my soul’s true love?

He is nowhere to be found.

Then I encountered the overseers as they encircled the city.

So I asked them, “Have you found him— my heart’s true love?”

Just as I moved past them, I encountered him. I found the one I adore!

I caught him and fastened myself to him, refusing to be feeble in my heart again.

Now I’ll bring him back to the temple within where I was given new birth— into my innermost parts, the place of my conceiving.

Promise me, O Jerusalem maidens, by the gentle gazelles and delicate deer, that you’ll not disturb my love until she is ready to arise.”

Song of Songs 3:1-5 TPT

Prayer:

In search of you, lover of my soul, I asked the watchman, “Please find my true love! I will fasten my heart to him.”
