

Forerunners for Christ Los Angeles

September 19, 2024 – The Forerunner Message in the End Times – Erlinda Cruz

Forerunners Prepare the Unprepared

Not all feel called to emphasize Jesus' second coming and the events related to it. Those who do must prepare by gaining understanding of what the Scripture says about the end times. Forerunners proclaim from the Scripture what will happen before it occurs, including the end-time revival, judgment, deception, and persecution.

Forerunners prepare people to respond rightly to Jesus by giving them understanding of His end-time plans, so that they will be able to agree with what He is doing in that hour, instead of resisting it.

Forerunners prepare the unprepared by informing them that Jesus is returning to the earth as the King of kings and specifically by changing their expectation and interpretation of the unique events related to His coming.

If people lack understanding of what is happening in the end times, they will be more likely to yield to fear, offense, confusion, compromise, and deception. Their ignorance of what the Scripture says about the events occurring in that hour will cause them to make wrong decisions.

As intense events unfold, many will lose their perspective and objectivity in seeing God's love and wisdom. People will need to see what is happening from a biblical perspective and to understand the events as an expression of God's love and wisdom.

Forerunners will bring this understanding of God's love to the context of the unique end-time events. As we daily see who a forerunner is, we also are taught what the calling is assigned to do. Notice that a forerunner is also considered a pioneer because he/she opens the way as well as prepare the way.
