Because He Cares

By Jordan Scott of FAI

Jordan Scott lives in the Muslim world with his wife and children.

Note: These past few days I have featured articles of FAI ministers. I find their articles to be very articulate and relevant to our times. I appreciate the maturity of their expressions in a very truthful way. I find their words penetrating and have a strong ability to transform. So I'm hoping you are learning from other spiritual voices speaking to us to enlarge our capacity to see and hear the hearts of pioneers. For I believe these writers are missionaries of the utmost definition of love and dedication.

GOD'S LOVE

God's love for us is quite literally unfathomable. And sometimes it can even seem unbelievable. When we take a long look at humanity, or even better, a long, honest look at ourselves, it seems comical that God could and does love humans. But He does.

Of course we believe God loves us, on paper. But what about on our pillows? What anxieties keep us awake at night that come from a lack of believing, on a gut-level, that God loves us?

Casting all your anxieties on Him, because He cares for you. [1]

The reason Peter gives us for casting our anxieties on Jesus is that He cares. YAHWEH—the one who upholds the universe by the Word of His power—cares. For you.

Don't believe me? Just watch!

AXE HEAD

So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees. But as one was felling a log, his axe head fell into the water, and he cried out, "Alas, my master! It was borrowed." Then the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" When he showed him the place, he cut off a stick and threw it in there and made the iron float. And he said, "Take it up." So he reached out his hand and took it.[2]

God defied the laws of physics by the hands of the prophet, Elisha, to miraculously cause iron to float. Why? Because someone lost their buddy's hand-tool. "Alas, my master! It was borrowed." Can you imagine all of the other things God is concerned with at any given moment?

He's literally overseeing the entire earth's population and meticulously watching over His Word to perform it, and yet He chooses to concern Himself with retrieving something dropped in the water. Why?

Because He cares.

Because His care is penetrating... provoking and stirring to soul and mind.

Because His care immediately opens the door to a picture of Jesus with hands outstretched towards you!

Whether you are sinking or floating in the sea of life, Jesus is there! Do you see Him?
In darkness and in light, Jesus is there! Why? Because He cares.
