Because He Cares (Part 2)

WINE

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you... When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of His signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested His glory. And His disciples believed in him. [3]

Some close friends of Mary ran out of wine. And the Son of Man performs His first and arguably most notable miracle in His ministry. Why would God in the flesh concern himself with this?

Because He cares.

Imagine the relief these people felt when God did this for them. It seems to me that God is honoring them by covering their shame from losing a borrowed item or not being able to serve guests adequately. I don't know for sure, but it smells like Jesus to me.

Jesus Name above every name! Because Jesus cares, I received forgiveness from sin by His cross, death and resurrection! Jesus you are Lord! You are my Lord!
