Cry for a Song of Praise

“It’s time to sing and shout for joy! Go ahead, all you redeemed ones, do it! Praise him with all you have, for praise looks lovely on the lips of God’s devoted lovers.

Play the guitar as you lift your praises loaded with thanksgiving. Sing and make joyous music with all you’ve got inside.

Compose new melodies that release new praises to the Lord. Play his praises on instruments with the anointing and skill he gives you. Sing and shout with passion; make a spectacular sound of joy—

For God’s Word is something to sing about! He is true to his promises, his word can be trusted, and everything he does is reliable and right.

The Lord loves seeing justice on the earth. Anywhere and everywhere you can find his faithful, unfailing love!

All he had to do was speak by his Spirit-Wind command, and God created the heavenlies. Filled with galaxies and stars, the vast cosmos he wonderfully made.

His voice scooped out the seas. The ocean depths he poured into vast reservoirs.

With breathtaking wonder, let everyone worship Yahweh, this awe-inspiring Creator.

He breathed words and worlds were birthed. “Let there be,” and there it was— springing forth the moment he spoke, no sooner said than done!

With his breath he scatters the schemes of nations who oppose him; they will never succeed.

His destiny-plan for the earth stands sure. His forever-plan remains in place and will never fail.

Blessed and prosperous is that nation who has God as their Lord! They will be the people he has chosen for his own.”

Psalms 33:1-12 TPT

Yes it’s time to cry for a song of praise always! To sing, to strum, to blow the horn and make a melody! Let all be a praise, a worship, and a prayer with just a sound and with just a word; let it ring in praises loud!
