Stories of Mercy (Part 2)

Today is 23rd day of God's daily mercies. In the next 4 remaining days of February, we will feature stories of mercy.

David

God showed mercy to David many times. David desired his mercy, too. You can see this after his betrayal with Bathsheba when he goes to God repenting of his sin.

“Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.” (Psalm 51:1-2, NIV)

This heart posture is one that pleases God, and so God had mercy on David. His repentance shows his heart of love and reverence towards God, to admit he wronged God above it all.

Your repentance means a great deal to God. And when you don't forgive someone, it's not just against them but against God because he calls you to love others.
