Psalm 81:8-16

”Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you—O Israel, if you would listen to Me! There shall no strange god be among you, neither shall you worship any alien god.

I am the Lord your God, Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

Open your mouth wide and I will fill it. But My people would not hearken to My voice, and Israel would have none of Me.

So I gave them up to their own hearts' lust and let them go after their own stubborn will, that they might follow their own counsels. [Acts 7:42, 43; 14:16; Rom. 1:24, 26.]

Oh, that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways!

Speedily then I would subdue their enemies and turn My hand against their adversaries.

[Had Israel listened to Me in Egypt, then] those who hated the Lord would have come cringing before Him, and their defeat would have lasted forever. [God] would feed [Israel now] also with the finest of the wheat; and with honey out of the rock would I satisfy you.”
