The Time is Near

“The revelation from Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John, who testifies to everything he saw – that is, the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.”

Revelation 1:1-3 NIVUK

The prophecies are manifesting clearly. How so timing that for such a time as this, we are studying the book on Sinai to Zion, especially today in this day, the reality of His return. The expediency of preparation; getting our lives aligned with the Spirit of God!

“At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people – everyone whose name is found written in the book – will be delivered.

Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

But you, Daniel, roll up and seal the words of the scroll until the time of the end. ‘Many will go here and there to increase knowledge.’ I heard, but I did not understand.

So I asked, ‘My Lord, what will the outcome of all this be?’ He replied, ‘Go your way, Daniel, because the words are rolled up and sealed until the time of the end. Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand.’

Daniel 12:1-4, 8-10 NIVUK

Daniel was given the vision but not the understanding because it’s for another day, not for him to understand.

That day to understand is today! There’s an anointing for understanding.
