The Bride Will Have Her Voice (Part 2)

It will be the first time in history that the Spirit will universally emphasize the Church's identity as the Bride of Christ.

1. Note: John does not proclaim that the Spirit and the family say, "Come," nor the Spirit and the army, nor the kingdom, nor the body, nor the temple, nor the priesthood. The voice of the Spirit in unison with the bride will together say "come."
2. Forever, the redeemed will rejoice in the reality of their spiritual identity as Jesus' body, temple, priesthood, as sons of God, and more.

THE CRY OF THE BRIDE, sounding a clarion cry to marshal the believers to enter into her final identity as a bride, ready with a voice and a message for the raising up of the end time messengers.

- It is important to have a bridal paradigm or perspective of the kingdom of God.
- To see the kingdom through the eyes of a cherished Bride who is in deep partnership with Jesus as the Bridegroom King.
- As the redeemed feel loved and cherished, and they see their eternal destiny as Jesus' eternal companion, they are far more empowered to walk in obedience, faith, and courage and resist compromise, fear, and spiritual boredom.
